Lessons

Lessons can be arranged with Billy Fleegler, Bob Howard or Tammie Samborski through our Bryn Mawr (610-527-2387) or Radnor office (610-688-2416) during DVTA time at Radnor, open time at Radnor or during your Radnor Racquet Club contract time. The academy is noted for its technical direction and would like to share its knowledge with you.

Group Clinics

The group programs are designed for all levels with the less experienced focusing more on technique and controlled doubles situations. The more advanced students work on movement, strategy, anticipation, some technique and more match play. The program centers around technique, movement and conditioning with specific focus on doubles placement and strategy. All drills are of high intensity and technically driven. Each week the teaching staff will focus on a different area of technique progressing toward more strategy toward the end of the session.
